

Figure S4: The two-step normalisation procedure described by Fleet et al. (2000), as applied to our data. (A) the un-normalised spectrum with the first correction line fitted to the pre-edge region shown in red. (B) The intermediate spectrum after subtraction of the red line in A with a second normalisation line based on the shaded blue regions shown. (C) The final, normalised spectrum.